

We used to get calls from telemarketers, which was bad enough, but the hang-up calls were worse. Several times a day, a call from an "unknown" or "unavailable" number would ring the phone and hang up. We attributed this to telemarketers. Since we signed up for the "DO NOT CALL" list, these calls are nonexistent. Please don't cave into the telemarketers and weaken this very effective service. Thanks.